

BOOST words parent postcard (P1 - 11)

culprit

ridiculous

scoff

trample

We read Who flung dung? this week and learned these new words.

Try and use them as much as you can at home.

You could try.....

- ◆ making up a story with your child about a ridiculous day, or a ridiculous meal.
- ◆ talking about the culprit if you see a TV programme or read a book where someone does something wrong.
- ◆ having a pretend picnic or tea party with your child, remind them not to scoff their food.
- ◆ laying toys on the floor and walking round being careful not to trample on them.

What do the words mean?

culprit - The culprit is the person or thing that did something wrong.

ridiculous — If something is ridiculous it is very, very silly.

scoff — If you scoff food you eat it quickly and greedily.

trample — If you trample something you stand on it heavily and break it.

You could try.....

- ♦ making up a story with your child about a ridiculous day, or a ridiculous meal.
- ♦ talking about the culprit if you see a TV programme or read a book where someone does something wrong.
- ♦ having a pretend picnic or tea party with your child, remind them not to scoff their food.
- ♦ laying toys on the floor and walking round being careful not to trample on them.

What do the words mean?

culprit - The culprit is the person or thing that did something wrong.

ridiculous — If something is ridiculous it is very, very silly.

scoff — If you scoff food you eat it quickly and greedily.

trample — If you trample something you stand on it heavily and break it.

BOOST words parent postcard (P1 - 11)

culprit

ridiculous

scoff

trample

We read Who flung dung? this week and learned these new words.

Try and use them as much as you can at home.